Will of John Markham, 1658.

In the Name of God, Amen. The nynth day of September in the yeare of Our Lord, according to the accompte now used in England, One thousand six hundred fiftie and eight, I, John Markham of the Parish of Saint Martin Outwich, London, Marchant, being att present weake of body and of sound and perfect minde and memory (thankes be to Almighty God), doe make and declare this my last Will and Testament in manner and forme following: (that is to say), First I commend my soule into the handes of Almighty God in faith that by and through the merritts and mediation of Jesus Christ my only and alone Saviour and Redeemer, all my sinns shall be pardoned and I made pertaker of eternall joy and happiness. My body, after this life ended, I committ unto the Earth to be decently buried in Christian buriall in expectation of a glorious resurection, and as for and concerning that worldly Estate that it hath pleased God to make mee a Steward of, I render upp the same to be disposed of as followeth, First I do will that a Tripartite division shall be made, after my debts and funeralls are satisfyed, of all my goods, chattells and personall Estate according to the Custome of London, whereof one third part I leave to my deare and loving Wife Elizabeth according to the said Custome, one other third part thereof I leave to my children John, Elizabeth and Sarah and such and other child and children as I shall hereafter have and to the Survivours and Survivour of them according to the said custome, and the other third part thereof, which by the said custome I may dispose of (called the Testator's third), I thus dispose of (videlicet), I give and bequeath to my aforesaid Wife the summe of fower hundred poundes and all my plate, linnen and houshold goods with her jewells and apparell. thereunto belonging, lyeing and being in the feilds and p^recincts of Spratton aforesaid, being parte of a yard land formerly purchased by me, the said Francis Markham, together with the aforesaid messuage or tenement of John Martin of Spratton aforesaid, Yeoman, and is in the tenure or occupaçon of Robert Shakwell aforesaid, the other halfe of the said yard land being by one Indenture Tripartite, beareing date the foureteenth of Aprill in the yeare of Our Lord God One thowsand six hundred fifty and thre, by me, the said Francis Markham, and is pticularly expressed and sett downe in a Schedule or Terrar to the said Indenture annexed. Alsoe I doe give and bequeath to Elizabeth Markham my elder daughter the sūme of one hundred and forty pounds of good and lawfull money of England, to be paid her by my Executrix when she shall demand itt. Alsoe I give and bequeath unto Joane Markham my beloved Wife such and soe many of my goods and cattell and chattells as she, the said Joane, shall make choice off out of all the personall Estate which I, the said Francis, shall dye possessed of as shall not exceed the value of twelve pounds, according to the rate as they shal be valued and prized att in the Inventory as shal be made of all my goods and chattells after my decease. Alsoe I doe give and bequeath to George Castle of Bitswell in the County of Leicester, Clarke, the sūme of tenn shillings of lawfull English money. Alsoe I doe give and bequeath unto Mary Castle his Wife the sūme of tenn shillings. Alsoe I doe give and bequeath unto Francis Castle, the sonne of the aforesaid George Castle and Mary his Wife, and my younger daughter, the sūme of tenn pounds of lawfull money of England, to be paid to his Father, George Castle aforesaid, for his use. Item: alsoe I give and bequeath to my Brother Gregory, Cittizen and Skinner in London, tenn shillings to buy him a ring. And alsoe I give and bequeath to my Sister in lawe Joyous Markham, to buy her a ring, ten shillings. And my Sister in Lawe Elizabeth Markham, Widdowe, to her I give and bequeath tenn shillings to buy her a ring. Alsoe I doe give and bequeath to Theodore Markham, the second sonne of Gregory Markham, the second sonne of the said Francis Markham, the sūme of tenn pounds of lawfull English money to be paid the foresaid Gregory his Father for his use. Alsoe I give and bequeath to Elizabeth Markham, elder daughter of the foresaid Gregory Markham my second sonne before mençoned, the sume of tenn pounds of lawfull English money, to be paid the foresaid Gregory her Father for her use. Alsoe I doe give and bequeath unto Sarah Markham, the younger daughter of the aforesaid Gregory, the summe of tenn pounds of lawfull English money, to be paid her Father for her use. Alsoe I doe and bequeath John Locke, the aged and brought lowe through infirmities, the sūme of twenty shillings. And to John Esson the summe of tenn shillings, and I give and bequeath fifty shillings to be distributed to the rest of the poore with the advice of the Churchwardens and Overseers of the poore of the Parish of Great Greiton for whome alone this gift is intended. Alsoe I doe hereby make my beloved Wife Joane Markham sole Executrix of this my last Will and Testament and doe hereby constitute and appointe my sonne George Castle of Bitswell, Clarke, before mençoned and my eldest sonne James Markham of Creaton aforesaid, Master of Arts, Supervisors and Overseers of this my last Will and Testament to both whom, to be equally devided betwixt them, I doe give and bequeath all my bookes in my Study or elsewhere appertayneing unto me. Alsoe I doe give and bequeath tenn pounds to repayreing of the Parsonage howse of Creaton aforesaid. Alsoe I doe give and bequeath

Markham.

Markham. to my Sheapherd five shillings. And to my two Maid Servants and my man Richard five shillings apiece to each of them. Anto my man John I give and bequeath seaven shillings and alsoe I give and bequeath nyne pounds to be disposed of towards the payment of the debts of William James, my wives Brother, such as shall appeare to be reall debts and not yet discharged. And Whereas I have given by this my Will the sume of foure pounds to some particularly and to the rest generally, to the whole poore of the Parish of Great Creaton the sume of fouer pounds, that sume is to be paid out of a yellow purse wherein itt hath been treasured up for such a purpose a great while and wherein is contained a further sume appoynted for pious and charitable uses which I leave to my Wife to dispose off at her leasure as oppertunity serveth to the ends and purposes intended. And hereby I doe publish and declare this to bee my last Will and Testament conteyned in two sheets of paper unto each of which I have sett to my hand and seale on the eight day of June in the yeare of our Lord God One thousand six hundred sixty and one and in the thirteenth of the raigne of Our Sovereigne Lord Charles the Second, by the Grace of God, King of England, Scotland, France and Ireland, Defender of the Faith &c. Memorandum that there was a word erased in the twenty first line of the first sheet and it was done by the hand of me, the Testator, before I sett my hand or seale to that sheete. Alsoe in the thirty ninth lyne of the first sheete the word Northampton was razed by mee, the Testator, before setting to my hand and seale. Alsoe something razed lyne the five and fortieth in the first sheet and something interlyned overhead betwixt lyne the foure and fortieth and five and fortieth lyne the words inserted are these (a Ring tenn shillings) which was done by me before signed and sealeing. Alsoe betwixt lynes the thirty seaventh and thirty eight in the first sheet the word give was interlyned by me before signeing and sealing. Alsoe betwixt lynes fifty six and fifty seven was enterlyned the word wife by me the Testator before signeing and sealing. Alsoe betwixt lynes the eight and ninth of the second sheete was interlyned the word uses by mee, the Testator, before signeing and sealeing. Signed, sealed, published, the day and yeare above written by me, Francis Markham, And in the presence of John Arnoll, James Willmott, William Markham, Because this my Will was signed and sealed in haste and late soe that the Witnesses tooke noe notice of the signeing but only of the sealing, I doe therefore againe sett my hand and seale to this my last Will this eleaventh of June in the yeare of our God and Lord One thousand six hundred sixty and one and publish it as my last Will and Testament.

*Letter from the Rev. Charles Markham,
2 June 1783.*

Sir,

I recd yours relating to pedigree of the Markhams. I have never studied that matter, therefore am incapable of assisting you in the Completion of your Genealogical Table. The Estate at St. Albans now enjoyed by your family, and also that part possessed by my late Father, (who died Twenty years since) as appears by Deed of Conveyance, was purchased in 1661 by M^{rs} Eliz: Markham, who was my late father's Grandmother, she was I suppose then a Widow. My Grandfather Markham lived at Staines in Middlesex, as I have heard, was a Silk Throwster, my father was born at Staines. This is all the imperfect Account I can give about this affair. I desire to send my Compliments to your Mother, Brother and yourself, Sincerely Wishing you Health, and Prosperity in all your Undertakings. By the Blessing of God, I have enjoyed good state of Health many years, and am now happy in that respect. I am very glad to hear your Brother and yourself and family are well settled in Life. I know your late father, my Cousin Alexander M: was possessed of a Considerable temporal Estate.

I am your humble Servant,

Shangton, June
2^d 1783.

Cha: Markham

P.S.—Am sorry cannot give you any Information about this matter, I shou'd have been glad to have communicated it to you. I don't know where to direct you for Information. I live at Shangton a small Parish, almost depopulated by Inclosures. I have been possessed of the living near 26 Years. It is six miles from Market Harborough. Letters are not brought regularly here.

Armorial Bearings of the Family of Josselyn.

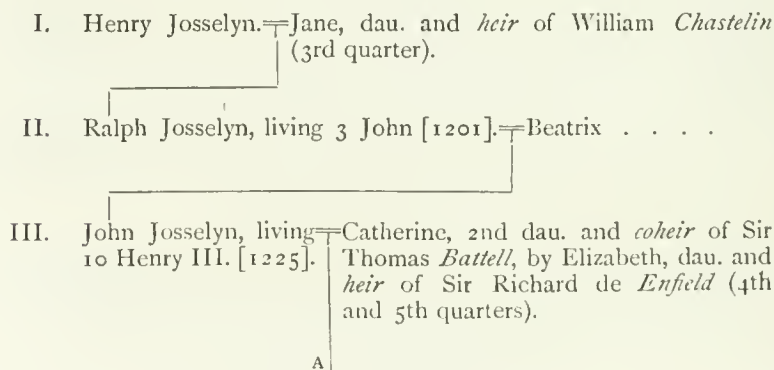

Armorial bearings are on record at the College of Arms as having been allowed at the Visitation of London 1633-34 to Thomas Joscelyn of the "Libertie of S^t Bartholomew the Greate." They are shown in trick and blazoned thus:—

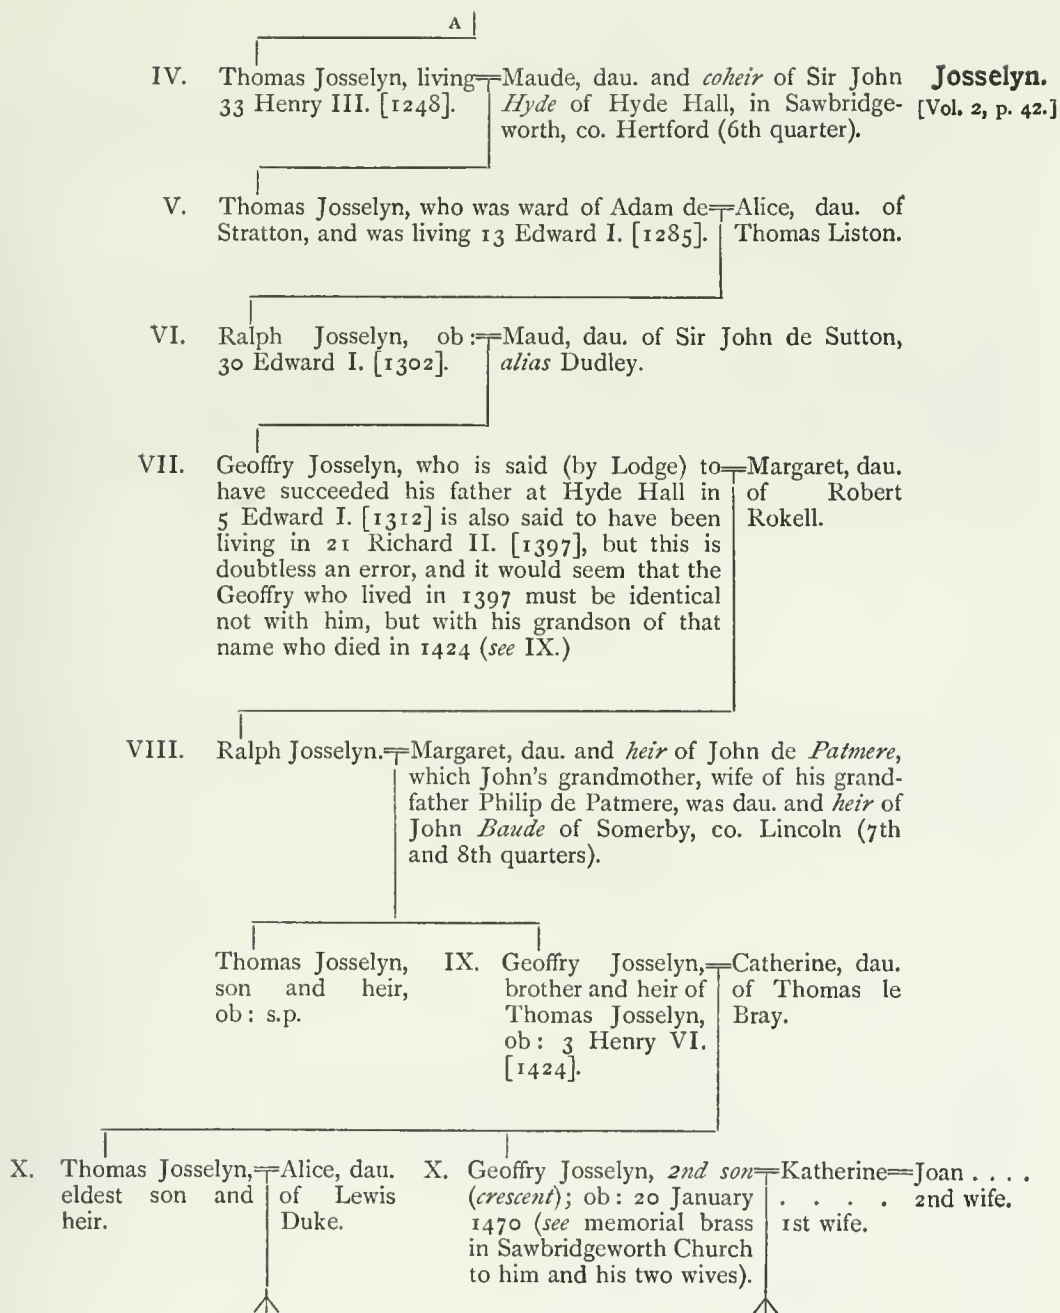

Arms.—Quarterly: 1st, Azure, a circular wreath argent and sable, with four hawks' bells affixed thereto in quadrangle or, Joscelyn; 2nd, Argent, a demi-lion rampant sable, ducally crowned or, Joscelyn; 3rd, Azure, a fess or, Chaselin; 4th, Gules, a griffin segreant within a bordure engrailed or, Battaile; 5th, Gules, an inescutcheon argent within an orle of martlets or, Enfeild; 6th, Gules, on a saltire engrailed or five torteaux of the field, a chief ermine, Hide; 7th, Argent, three escutcheons, two and one, gules, Patmer; 8th, Gules, three chevrons argent, Baude. On fess point a crescent for difference.

Crest.—A falcon's leg belled or, the thigh erased gules.

Origins of the Quarterings and Crescent.

The Josselyn pedigree from A.D. 1200 to A.D. 1470, compiled from comparison of the pedigrees given in Clutterbuck's and Chauncy's "Histories of co. Hertford," Morant's "History of Essex," Lodge's "Peerage of Ireland," and Harleian "Visitations of Essex," runs thus:—

(Line now represented by Jocelyn, Earl of Roden.)

[Vol. 2, p. 42.]

In 1900 pedigrees of descents traced down from the Thomas last above mentioned were recorded at the College of Arms, and arms and quarterings allowed to him at the Visitation of London before mentioned have been again allowed (placing Hyde in the 4th quarter and Batell and Enfield in the 5th and 6th quarters) to descendants from him, of whom there are therein recorded as of age and living in 1900 the following males, viz:—

1, Arthur Henry Josselyn of Farnham, near Bury St Edmunds, and his brothers, viz: 2, Frederick John, and 3, Willoughby; also their kinsmen, viz: 1, John Henry Josselyn of Ipswich, his brothers, viz: 2, James Edward, and 3, George Francis, and the nephews of the three last named, viz: 1, Frederic Oswald Josselyn, 2, John Josselyn, 3, Arthur Murray Josselyn, 4, Edward Josselyn, and 5, Ernest William Josselyn, sons of their deceased brother Frederic.
